
Don't believe everything you see online

AI can be fun and useful, but it can also get things wrong, or give you information that's one-sided or outdated.

Always check when and how you're allowed to use AI, and remember to use it responsibly.